DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

- 1. Claims 15, 16, 18, 20-28, 30, and 31 are allowed.
- 2. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

In interpreting the claims, in light of the specification and the applicant's amendments filed August 3rd, 2007, the Examiner finds the claimed invention to be patentably distinct from the prior art of record. The prior art does not teach all of the limitations of the independent claim in combination with the other elements presented.

The prior art of record teaches a client-based system for fault tolerant delivery of real-time or continuous data streams using multimedia servers that are grouped into sets (Goldszmidt). The prior art also teaches issuing a request for a stream, receiving a response, and using data associated with the response to select a particular server from among a set (Wynblatt). Also taught is a method of switching media streams between a primary and secondary stream using a buffer to cache advanced portions of the stream (Lumelsky).

However, as per the claims presented in the amendment filed August 3rd, 2007, the prior art fails to teach a system that receives a list of a set of servers identified by a content delivery network (CDN) map generating process, issues a request to each of the servers, uses resulting responses to select a particular server, and renders a media stream from a selected server. Concurrently, the system also checks the received media stream for unacceptable conditions, buffers advanced portions based on these conditions, instructs the server to send from an offset a new position in the stream, and renders this new offset when needed. These limitations, in combination with the complete environment presented in the set of allowed claims, distinguish applicant's invention from the prior art of record.

- 3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
